> MESSES Cassell and Company, the wellknown publishers, have seet us a set of the current issues of their magazines, with a reminder that, under the new postal arrangements introduced at the commencement of this year, their Magazines and cerials can be sent to any part of the world on the same terms as they are transmitted to residents in the City of London. These publications are so well and favourably known all the world over that they require no commendation. The Art Magazine, the Family Magazine, the Quiver and Little Folks, with the two younger ventures of the great publishing house, the Saturday Journal and Work, ought to be welcome in every Englishspeaking household, and as they can now be obtained under such favourable conditions as we have referred to, we doubt not that the publishers' auticipations of a largely increased demand for them will be fully

THE second annual meeting under the auspices of the Hongkong Athletic Club takes place at Happy Valley to morrow afternoon. A start will be made at 1.30. and, as the list of events is a heavy one, Eussia is permitting the export of malze no time will require to be wasted if the Committee intend to conclude the meeting before nightfall. It was intended to decide some of the heats in the tag of war this afternoon, but it has now been decided that the first pull will take place at 2 o'clock to morrow afternoon and the final half an hour leter. We understand that four teams have entered for the tug of war, representing England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. A large number of entries has been received in most of the competitions, including several former prize-winners. This should be a guarantee for close contests. At the conclusion of the day's sports, the prizes will be presented to the successful competitors by Lady Robinson.

THE INTERNATIONAL SANITARY CONFERENCE. On the whole the decision which seems OPIUM-New Patus, cash, 545 to have been arrived at by the Sanitary Conference at Venice is as satisfactory as could be expected in view of the strong feeling which pervades the Continent, and is especially virulent in France, against admitting the uninterrupted passage of British vessels, from Eastern ports through the Suez Canal. England has not gained all she demanded, and considering the jealousy of some, and the not altogether unfounded apprehensions of all the Mediterranean Powers, a complete immunity of British ships, coming from the East, from inspection and supervision could buildy be looked for.
